

Then The Media Team might be for you!

What is The Media Team?

The Media Team is a new course for people with learning disabilities that will train you in skills for media production.

What could you learn?

You could learn skills in one of these areas:

Film making

Web page design

Animation

Podcasts

Creating newsletters

When does it start?

October 2010

How often will I have to come?

In the first half of the Media Team you will be taking part in training sessions. You will come to the Albany 1 day per week.

In the second part of the year you will be creating your own media projects for Heart n Soul while training continues.

How can I take part?

If you want to take part, please talk to us or fill in a form. Make sure you leave your contact details with us.

We will contact you soon to make a time to meet you, tell you more about the course and find out if you are right for it.
